

NKHL NEWS

FOR WEEK 2

Monday: Cyborgs defeat Snipers 5-3

In the first, the Cyborgs scored two and the Snipers had one goal. Then in the second, the Cyborgs got one and another in the third. The Snipers got within one after that, but a Justin Ross empty netter confirmed the Cyborg victory.

Tuesday: Bolts defeat Wombats 3-2

The Wombats scored the only goal in the first, but the Bolts got two in the second, which the Wombats responded with an equalizer. In the third, twelve second in the Bolts took the lead with a power play goal, and held on to win the close matchup.

Wednesday: Sailors defeat Bowmen 5-2

The Sailors started off the scoring with two, which the Bowmen were able to answer by the end of the second. In the third though, the Sailors scored three more and held on, moving to 2-0, and there was also a bench-clearing scrum after the final buzzer.

Thursday: Hawks defeat Goblins 4-3

The Hawks scored four in the first, causing the Goblins to change goalies. The Goblins fought back, getting one in the second and two in the third. On a scoring chance late the Goblins earned a penalty shot, which was saved for the Hawks win.

Friday: Polar Bears defeat Pioneers 6-2

After the Pioneers scored a penalty shot, the Polar Bears finished the first with three straight, capped off with a goalie bar-down from deep. In the second, the Polar Bears scored a powerplay goal, and then two more, after a Pioneers goal to win.

Friday: Elves defeat Rangers 3-2

After a scoreless first, the Rangers went and scored 2 in the second, before getting a slashing penalty. This powerplay gave the momentum to the Elves, because after the penalty was over the Elves scored three in the third and finished the comeback.

Saturday: Coyotes defeat Gladiators 4-3

The Coyotes’ Anthony Alston started hot with 2 in the first 50 seconds, one on a penalty shot. They got one more in the second, and another after the Gladiators first one. The Gladiators scored 2 in six seconds in the third, but still fell short at the end.

Saturday: Wildfire defeat Lumberjacks 4-3

The Lumberjacks got 2 in the first, split by two from the Wildfire. In the second the Lumberjacks re-took the lead, and took a penalty which the Wildfire scored on in the third. The Wildfire then scored again and held on late to take their first win.

INJURED RESERVE SUMMARY

Tim Reynolds - Polar Bears
Week 1 Concussion - Back Week 4

Byron Clemons - Wildfire
Week 1 Fractured Jaw - Back Week 4